

Women-in-Business Industry Group Facilitator: Kim Smith – Certified Professional Coach, Speaker and Facilitator

Kim is a graduate from the University of Colorado, Boulder. She received her professional coach certification through iPEC (the Institute of Professional Excellence in Coaching), and is a certified team coach through the Global Team Training Institute (GTCI).

With a background as an executive in marketing and sales in the marketing agency world, snow sports/outdoor retail, tourism and event planning industries, Kim has an in-depth understanding of both the corporate and entrepreneurial side of business.

Years of business experience, leadership, and both personal and professional development have led her to follow her passion and purpose of helping individuals and organizations to grow, be empowered and thrive through coaching and training programs.

Learn more about Kim & Adventures in Coaching here!

Adventures in Coaching
Reach Your Potential